Dear Madam,

Thank you so much for your mail and extremely delighted to receive the invitation to deliver a webtalk on the captioned topic. It would be advantageous to have the webinar on August 5, 2020 preferably in the day time may be around 11.30 am. I am sure it would be an enriching experience. May I know the targeted audience though in webinar it is difficult to ascertain. However, a note on the specific audience would help me to prepare the webtalk. A line of confirmation related to the date, time and the targeted audience is highly solicited.
